

EDWARD A. BUTLER

Born:

Philadelphia, PA

Education:

Philadelphia College of Art

Biography:

Philadelphia-born artist Edward A. Butler was the youngest student ever admitted to Philadelphia's prestigious Samuel Fleisher Art Memorial School where he began his formal art education at the age of eight. He went on to graduate from the Philadelphia College of Art before moving to New York City, where he has been painting ever since.

Today, Mr. Butler and his wife live in a restored 120-year-old brick row house in Long Island City, NY where he maintains his studio. A classically trained pianist, he also is an experienced aerobatic pilot.
